No record. No film. No scouting report.

Before anyone had a reason to, somebody believed in him. That's what this scholarship does for the next Batavia kid, for college, trade school or an apprenticeship. Every year, for good.

Thank you for giving.

SCOUT'S NOTES: High motor. Coachable. Natural leader. Other kids listen to him, which is either a gift or a discipline problem depending on the day.

PROJECTION: Teacher. Coach. Both, probably. Will spend decades giving other people's kids the thing he got.

The projection was right.

This is the hinge of the set. On this card he’s a Batavia kid being coached. On every card after it, he’s the one doing the coaching, and eventually the teaching, which turned out to be the same job with different equipment.

Dennis retired from teaching in 2026. What ended was the classroom, and that is exactly what this scholarship carries on: the next Batavia senior, funded every single year, permanently.

Scan it. Give.

The Dunham Foundation doubles the first $50,000, dollar for dollar.

The card you are holding contains an actual snip of Coach's lanyard. Not game-used in any sense that would survive a lawyer. Used, though. By a coach. That's more than most relic cards can honestly say.

In his class, teenagers built real companies. In 2026 a student team built The Windmill Weekly, a large-type newspaper for care-center residents, because a grandmother missed her paper.

Endowed means the fund is never spent. It's invested, and what it earns pays Batavia High School scholarships for college, trade school or an apprenticeship: this year, next year, and in a year when nobody reading this is still on the committee.

The Dunham Foundation matches the community's first $50,000, released once that $50,000 is received.
