No record. No film. No scouting report.

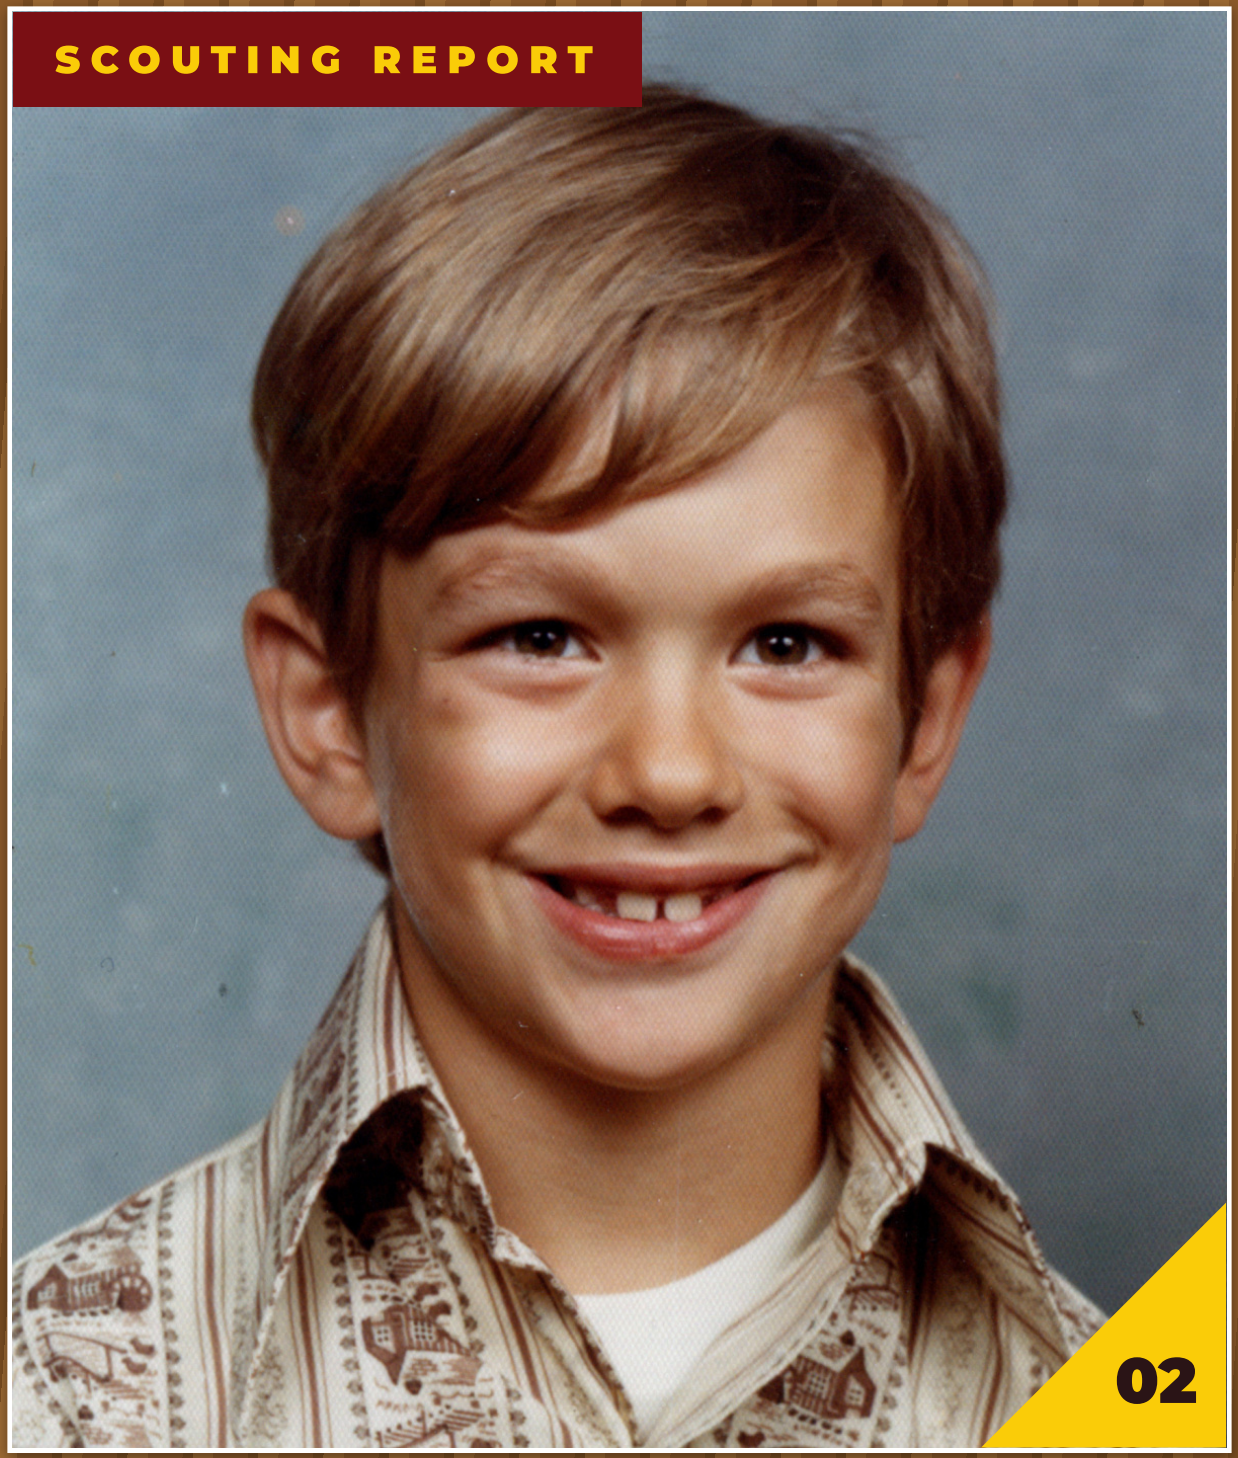

Before anyone had a reason to, somebody believed in him. That's what this scholarship does for the next Batavia kid, for college, trade school or an apprenticeship. Every year, for good.

Thank you for giving.

You're holding the first of ten. Scan to see the whole set.

MOTOR	COACHABLE	CONDUCT	HAIR
A+	A	B−	1970S

SCOUT'S NOTES: High motor. Coachable. Natural leader. Other kids listen to him, which is either a gift or a discipline problem depending on the day.

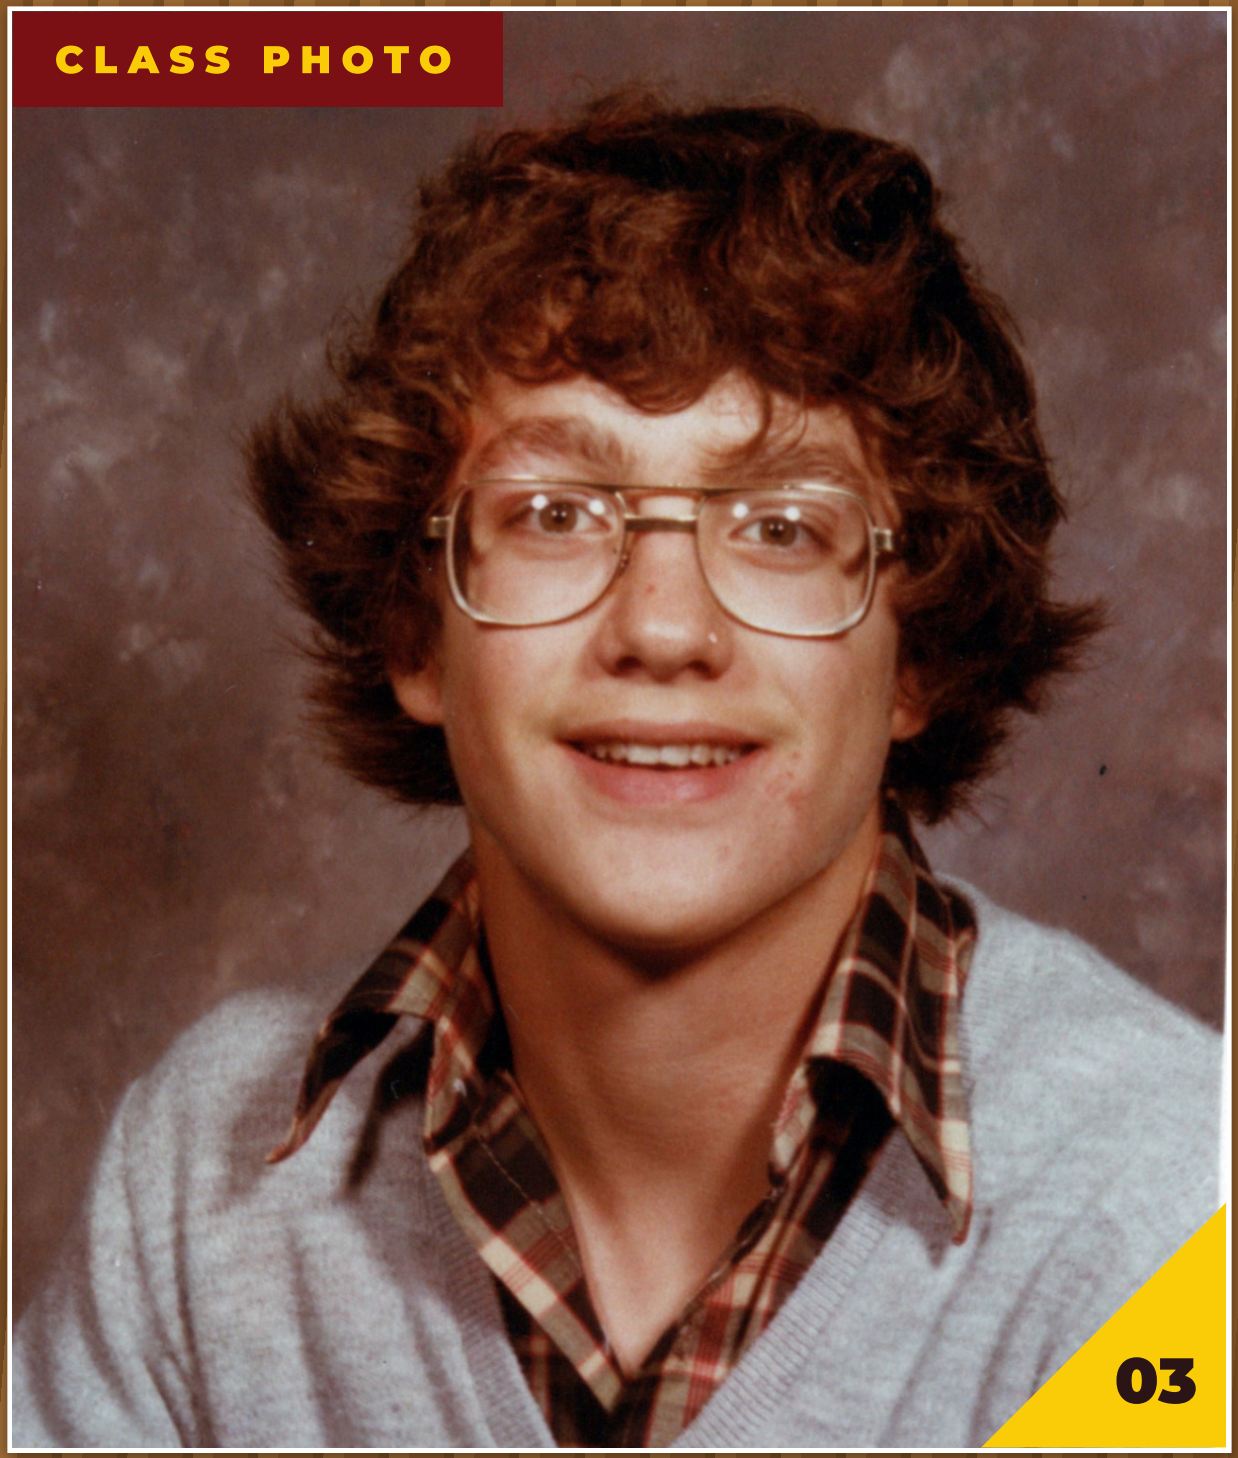

PROJECTION: Teacher. Coach. Both, probably. Will spend decades giving other people's kids the thing he got.

The projection was right.

Before the headset, the whistle and all those Friday nights, there was picture day.

Big frames. Bigger hair. A Batavia kid with no idea he'd spend his life on the other side of the desk, making sure the next kid in that chair had someone in their corner.

Went to school with him?

Batavia. 1980 to ’83. A receiver wearing 89.

Here he’s a Batavia kid being coached. Years later he’d be the one doing the coaching, and eventually the teaching, which turned out to be the same job with different equipment.

Where it started.

Keep going: the rest is what he did with it.

Before he was Coach, before he was Mr. Piron, he was a college kid with a lot of hair and a very serious stare.

Later he'd spend 10 years in Batavia's INCubator, where nearly 700 teenagers built real companies. "Given the opportunity to serve… how willing they are to do it."
